Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

Father Jed is off to enjoy some vacation time. In his absence, we get the benefit of an "A-Team" of other clergy who will be here to lead worship on Sundays, as well as the weekly service on Wednesdays.

The Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Party — Tomorrow @9 AM

Tomorrow is the Sewing and Knitting Party in Brooks Hall from 9 AM – 4 PM. Come for all or part of the day. Bring your own project or help us make some fun new things for the 2017 Boutique. There will be things to do for those who do not knit. We will have a fruit plate for lunch. Please bring something to share. If you have questions, please call Barb Lowery at 541-593-6614.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser — August 6th

Mark your calendars for a rousing time with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell on August 6th, 3-4PM in the St. Helens Sanctuary. The High Desert Poetry Cell consists of Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all. All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Our Family Kitchen Shopper has been found! Thank you, Jan Schweizer!!

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available on Sundays, during coffee hour, beginning July 23rd through the month of August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. Watch for the August newsletter for more about this project.

Cove/COPY Kids Are Off to Camp

The kids boarding the bus to Cove are excited, anxious, and brave. For many this is the first time. One 9 year old announced that he was the first one in his family to go to camp! A week later he returned and his COPY mentor wrote "He LOVED IT, and wasn't homesick, loved the food, having his own bed, the games they played, being in nature, liked the kids that he met ... everything! He even liked the fact that there weren't any electronic games and that the counselors were cool and not real old. He can't wait until next summer and wants to be a counselor when he is old enough."

Just see what your donations are doing--making dreams come true! THANK YOU. If you would like to help, please write a check to Trinity Episcopal Church with Cove/COPY on the memo line.
