SUNDAY, AUGUST 6, 2017

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY, AUGUST 6, 2017

Adult Forum

For much of the year, our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. During the summer, the Forum is on holiday – unless there's a special presentation.

The Rector's Away

While Fr. Jed is away, the Parish Office is (mostly) open as usual, but you may want to call before coming downtown. Outside regular office hours, please call the Pastoral Care Team (see back of bulletin) for any pastoral concerns. Direct other concerns to wardens Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald.

Building and Grounds (B&G) Committee seeks input on landscaping plan — TODAY

The B&G Committee is developing a new, comprehensive landscaping plan for Trinity that will be visually consistent across our campus, enhance the appearance of our buildings, give beauty to our city, and convey that Trinity is an open and vibrant faith community.

A B&G member will be available today during coffee hour, and each Sunday through August to answer questions and take feedback. For those who attend the 8:00 service, there will be paper and pens on which you can write your comments – and please add your name and phone number, in case we have questions for you. See the August newsletter for more about this project.

Family Kitchen Fundraiser: The High Desert Poetry Cell — TODAY @ 3 PM

Come on down to St. Helens Hall this afternoon at 3PM for a rousing hour (or so) with the ever-entertaining High Desert Poetry Cell. The High Desert Poetry Cell is a collaboration of poets Peter Lovering, John Kvapil, Don Kunz, Larry Jacobs and John Martin.

If you haven't attended one of these readings, you are encouraged to do so. This ain't your grandmother's poetry reading! Be prepared to laugh, to sigh, to reminisce, and to maybe even shake your head a bit at the audacity of it all.

All proceeds from book sales and donations are dedicated to Family Kitchen.

Second Sunday Cinema – Next Sunday @6 PM

Free movies, discussion and popcorn in St. Helens Hall on the second Sunday evening every month! Movies are selected for psychological, philosophical, theological and fun quotient. The first selection is “Inside Out”, an award winning animated film about the emotions of a young girl under the stress of an important life change. See you at the movies!

Save the date! Holiday Boutique Sewing and Knitting Day — August 28th

The next Sewing and Knitting Day is August 28th from 9-4 in Brooks Hall. We are having a kids craft time from 11-12:30 followed by lunch. Please RSVP with the number of children and their ages so we know how many projects to prepare. RSVP to Barb Lowery 541-593-6614 or

Barbiequilter@gmail.com.

Donations Needed for the Condega Dinner Auction

Less than six weeks to go and Rick's starting to get nervous. We've gotten some generous donations to the Condega Dinner auction but we're a long way from where we need to be. Please give some thought to how you might be able to contribute to the dinner auction and let Rick know at negus@bendbroadband.com or 541-480-4229.

Time in a lovely garden and support for Condega!

Think there aren't any flowers that the critters don't eat? Check out Genie's Garden: lots of flowers and lots of critters live in harmony. Take home a list of plants you can try as well as info on some special "tricks." There will be iced tea and nibbles on the deck after the tour for a chance to relax and chat.

There are 10 spots available on each of two dates: Friday August 18 at 4:00 and Sunday August 27 at 4:00. Sign up this Sunday in Brooks Hall for the tour, tips & tea.

Donations go to benefit the children and community of Condega, Nicaragua.
