SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2017

Announcement: Consecration Sunday is Coming! — TODAY @ 8 & 10:15 AM

On behalf of this year's Stewardship Team, Arlene Ullman will offer an important announcement at both of our morning services about our upcoming "Consecration Sunday" celebration. (As part of her announcement, you'll want to find the insert included in your bulletin this morning.)

We'll have more information to share in the coming weeks, so stay tuned ... and be sure to mark your calendars and be part of our celebration on Sunday, October 29!!

Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD) Responds to Multiple Disasters

ERD continues to work with dioceses in southern states, the Caribbean and Mexico as people are returning home following recent hurricanes and major earthquakes. As we absorb the shock of the devastations left behind, may we respond with generous support and help.

Your donation, of any amount, to ERD is much appreciated. Please make your check to Trinity with "ERD" in the memo line.

Coffee Hour/Adult Forum — TODAY @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between the morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection.

This morning, Chuck Johnson will present "The Many Faces of Jesus." Chuck and his wife, Shirley, have been active members of Trinity since last November, after they retired to Bend. Prior to his retirement as a United Methodist pastor (of 42 years), he and Shirley visited Bend and Trinity. Chuck will show a variety of "faces of Jesus" this morning and invite us to reflect on our own image and the difference it makes.

The weekly forum will take a break next week because of our Diocesan Convention, but the forum will return the next week – with a special chance to hear about the Convention.

Condega Informational Meeting — TODAY @ about 11:45 AM

Trinity members who have visited Condega will be in the library to talk about their experiences in Nicaragua. We'll answer any questions and announce a date for the 2018 trip to Nicaragua. Please come just for the information – we aren't asking for a commitment to go to Condega (though we'd love to have you!) Questions, call Rick Negus 541-480-4229.

Second Sunday Cinema: Night of the Demon — TONIGHT @ 6 PM

With Halloween approaching, it's time for a scary movie! Our October feature is "Night of the Demon" a classic UK horror film (1957). Set near Stonehenge, this movie, directed by Jacques Tourneur, pits an American scientist (Dana Andrews) against a British druid (Niall MacGinnis) who believes in unseen things.

Former film professor Kake Huck introduces the movie and facilitates discussion afterward. Come for a good scare and some fresh popcorn! It's free, but donations to offset cost are welcomed.

Trinity Pilgrim Hikes Resume — Thursday

Now that the snow and smoke have disappeared, and many vacations have ended, Trinity Pilgrim hikes will resume on Thursday, October 12th, to Rosary Lakes, a 6-mile round trip on relatively flat terrain. Details about this lovely hike will be sent to the hiking list. If you wish to add your name to the hiking list, contact lorettaslepikas@gmail.com.

Diocesan Convention — Friday through Sunday

The 47th Annual Diocesan Convention begins this Friday evening and continues through Sunday. The theme of this year's Convention is "Welcoming the Stranger: Practicing Radical Hospitality" – a theme near and dear to the hearts of many of us here at Trinity.

Our delegates from Trinity include Barbara Mayo, Rick Negus, Jan Schweizer, Peggy Ziegler, and Terry Rahmsdorff, along with our wardens, Joan Wellman and Karen Hauswald. Also participating are active clergy from Trinity, Jed Holdorff, Gaye Lawson, and John Collins, as well as Karly Nash. Phew!! We invite you to hold them in your prayers:

Almighty and everliving God, source of all wisdom and understanding, be present with those who take counsel for the renewal and mission of your Church. Teach us in all things to seek first your honor and glory. Guide us to perceive what is right, and grant us both the courage to pursue it and the grace to accomplish it; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Trinity is hosting this year's Diocesan Convention, so the whole congregation has a unique chance to be involved. Jeannette Beeger and Karen Hauswald are coordinating greeters.

Convention Eucharist — NEXT Sunday @ 10 AM (Note: not the usual 10:15 start)

The formal conclusion of the Convention is the Convention Eucharist. As with all liturgies of the church, it's an open invitation. The service will be held at St. Helens Hall, starting at 10 AM. (We do ask that those who are able to use the stairs might consider sitting in the balcony.)

Our Bishop, Patrick Bell, will be the Celebrant. The keynote speaker for this year's Convention, Dr. Arthur Sutherland, will be the preacher. His book, I Was a Stranger: A Christian Theology of Hospitality, is required reading for delegates this year, so the themes will likely be central to his sermon.

If you would prefer, please know that the 8 am liturgy will still be offered in Trinity at the usual time. We hope you will attend whichever of the morning liturgies works best for you!

Trinity Prayer Shawl Ministry — Thursday, October 19th

Stop by the Trinity library for our first fall gathering. We would love to fill the library with knitters and crocheters. Stop by for even a few minutes and enjoy some refreshments and see what has been or soon will be created for our shawl gifting collection. Please mark your calendars now for: THURSDAY OCTOBER 19, 2017 from 10:00am – Noon in the Trinity Library. Any questions, we are available!! Anita Walker 541-330-9171, Maria Wattier 541-280-7699, Robyn Perry 541-593-7284

Seeking Sunday Nursery Care Provider

As noted in the October newsletter, Kimberlyn will be leaving us for new adventures in Minnesota. If you (or someone you know?) enjoy interacting with children and can work about 4 hours on Sunday mornings please contact the office @ 541-382-5542 or ministry@trinitybend.org.
