

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcement: Consecration Sunday is Coming! — TODAY @ 8 & 10:15 AM

On behalf of this year's Stewardship Team, Rick Negus will offer an important announcement at both of our morning services about our upcoming "Consecration Sunday" on October 29. As part of his announcement, Rick will talk us through one of the special inserts in this morning's bulletin (the white card with a step chart on one side).

Before he finishes, he'll ask ushers to distribute reservation cards for the brunch next Sunday. If you haven't yet filled out one of these cards, please fill one out today – so we know whether you'll be able to join us or not!

Episcopal Relief and Development Responds to Multiple Disasters

Our denominational relief agency, Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD), has been working with locals on the ground in southern states, the Caribbean and Mexico, as well as in northern California, as people are returning home following recent hurricanes and major earthquakes and forest fires.

Your donation, of any amount, to ERD is much appreciated. Please make your check to Trinity with "ERD" in the memo line.

Adult Forum — TODAY @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection.

This morning, we'll have some "show and tell" time with delegates from Trinity to last weekend's Diocesan Convention. We have photos on the bulletin board and we'll share many more as part of this morning's adult forum. Come and enjoy some of the sights from the weekend, and listen to those who attended

The forum takes a break next week, allowing everyone from the 8 o'clock service to enjoy the brunch at St. Helens. But if you arrive early for the 10:15 service, come on into the Brooks Hall. A cup of coffee – and possibly other early birds! – is waiting for you to enjoy.

Cody English will be our very special guest presenter the following week, telling us about his time at 2017 Episcopal Youth Event (EYE) this past summer.

Undocumented: An online teach-in presented by Trinity Institute — Saturday @ 10 AM

In a time when many immigrants face uncertain futures, how can faith communities be sources of compassion, support, and action? Trinity Institute and Church Meets City, ministries of Trinity Church Wall Street, New York, present a free live streamed forum about the issues facing immigrants and refugees, and what you can do to help. October 28th at 10 AM you can find the live stream at www.trinitywallstreet.org or on-demand later at trinitywallstreet.org/videos.

Through lectures and panel discussion, religious and secular community leaders will address the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), Temporary Protected Status, and other policies affecting immigrants, refugees, and asylum-seekers.

Consecration Sunday — NEXT Sunday @ 8 and 10:15 AM

We will welcome Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori as our guest preacher at both of our services next Sunday morning. First ordained in the Diocese of Oregon, Bishop Jefferts Schori went on to become the Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Nevada before becoming the 26th Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church (serving in that capacity from 2006 to 2015).

Bishop Jefferts Schori will lead us in a time of commitment at the morning services, encouraging our financial giving and support for the life of our parish family.

Consecration Sunday BRUNCH! — NEXT Sunday @ 9 and 11:30 AM

After each of the morning services next week, you are invited to a celebratory brunch at St. Helens Hall. Bishop Jefferts Schori will stay on as our guest. We hope you'll take this opportunity to meet and greet her – and to enjoy one another's company, as well!

Bazaar and Bake Sale Work Party — Wednesday, November 1st

The Trinity Saints worker bees will be having a Work Party on All Saints Day, starting at 9:30 am and going on into the afternoon. We can take a break to attend Eucharist that day at noon.

There will plenty for folks to do. Machine and hand sewing people will be needed, as well as jewelry makers, crafters and anyone who would like to help with Bazaar goods. It will be a fun day with lots of activity with just 17 days before the largest Trinity Outreach Fund Raiser for the year. Lunch is to be decided. Drinks are always provided.

This will be our last major work party of 2017. We will receive completed projects that day or you can deliver them between November 15th and November 17th.

All Saints' Sunday — Sunday, November 5th

The Feast of All Saints, November 1, is one of the major feasts of the Christian year, so much so that our observance of the holy day carries over to our celebrations the following Sunday.

On that day, we will give thanks for the Communion of Saints – for the fellowship we share with those who have gone before us, and for the example our forebears have set for all of us. As part of the celebration, we will remember loved ones. A special insert is in your bulletin this Sunday.

We'll we also celebrate our incorporation into that blessed company through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. If you would like the Sacrament of Baptism for yourself or a loved one in your family, please contact the parish office before the end of this month. A time to speak with Fr. Jed will be arranged before we celebrate the holy day.

Holiday Bazaar

One of three inserts in this morning's bulletin is a yellow signup sheet for anyone who can help with this year's upcoming bazaar – donating an item to sell or assisting in other ways.

Important note: For the safety of our patrons with food allergies and intolerances, we kindly request ingredient labels be included with all food items to be sold at the Bazaar. Thank you!
