

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Parish Offices are closed Monday, April 2nd.

Please Return Your ERD Hope Chests — NEXT Sunday @ 8 & 10:15 AM

During Lent, we encouraged members of the congregation to fill Hope Chests in support of Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD) and their 2018 Campaign for Early Childhood Development. We hope you continue filling them in the coming week, then bring them back next week.

You can return your box full of change or write a check to Trinity Episcopal Church (with ERD on the memo line). If you would an acknowledgement for your donation, please include your name and address inside the box.

Coffee Hour/Adult Forum — NEXT Sunday @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. We're on holiday this morning, but please join us in the coming weeks.

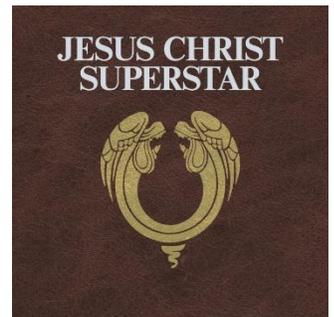

Next Sunday, in response to news that is deafeningly full of hatred and violence, trickling down into fear and anxiety, parishioner Betsy Lamb will speak about what living nonviolently means and how embracing nonviolence can help us be the person we want to be in the midst of it all. The Easter season beckons us to new life. (Some of us may make a life vow of nonviolent living.)

Second Sunday Cinema: JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR — NEXT Sunday @ 6 PM

Semi Sing-A-Long! Second Sunday Cinema presents Jesus Christ Superstar (1973). This American musical drama film is based on the Andrew Lloyd Webber/Tim Rice rock opera.

The story is based largely on the Synoptic Gospels and Fulton J. Sheen's Life of Christ. However, greater emphasis is placed on the interpersonal relationships of the major characters, in particular, Jesus, Judas and Mary Magdalene, relationships that are not described in depth in the Gospels.

What most people remember from the movie, however, is the music. That's why we're presenting this movie as a semi-singalong with lyrics available to a few of the most popular numbers, including the title song and "I don't know how to love Him."

Second Sunday Cinema always has free popcorn! Movies are followed by facilitated discussions.

Advocates for Disabled Americans Inc Demonstration — Saturday @ 10 AM – 1 PM

Advocates for Disabled Americans Inc., an active member of the Trinity Peace and Social Justice Team, has been conducting educational picketing at the SE 3rd Street Canal Bridge (south of Brosterhous Road) since last fall. This is an open event, come when you can, and stay for as long as you can. Signs saying "Sidewalks Needed" and "Honk for Sidewalks" would be appropriate. Your support is appreciated very much.

For more information contact Brian Douglass @ chiefadvocate4ada@gmail.com.

McMenamin's Fundraiser for Family Kitchen — Tuesday, April 10th @ 5 PM - closing

McMenamin's Old St. Francis School's Main Pub is donating 50% of all proceeds to Family Kitchen. Each $3 donated provides a full, nutritious, hot meal to our neighbors in need. Qualifying sales include to-go meals (call ahead to order @ 541-330-8563), food and beverages and merchandise.

Family Kitchen served 56,895 meals in 2017. All who come through our doors will be served – no hassles, no questions, no forms to fill out. Family Kitchen is Trinity's longest running outreach program. Please direct questions to Donna Burklo, Program Director, @ 541-760-5677 or donna@familykitchen.org

Unavoidable Hope: A Presentation by Dr. Roger Sabbadini — Monday, April 12th @ 6:30 PM

We've invited local author Roger Sabbadini to share the compelling true story of his father's efforts during WWII as part of the liberation of Italy and of his personal fight to keep his Jewish family out of the hands of the Fascists and the Nazis. This is an unusual aspect of history, with relevance to today's issues, including immigration and xenophobia among others.

Copies of Dr. Sabbadini's book "Unavoidable Hope: An Italian Jewish Soldier's Fight to Save His Family from Fascism" will be available in Brooks Hall at this event.

Confirmation or Reception or Reaffirmation

Bishop Pat Bell will be here on April 29 this year. When the Bishop comes, we present those who are prepared for adult professions – desiring to be Episcopalians and/or deciding to take on for themselves the promises of baptism. If you want to know more, please speak with Father Jed.

Save the Date: Women's Salad Potluck — Tuesday, May 1st

Trinity women, put May 1st @ 5:30 pm on your calendar for fellowship and conversation about future opportunities to gather as women of faith.

Questions? Contact Jane Davis at 858-337-7756 or janedavis6150@gmail.com.

Save the Date: Cove/COPY Fundraiser @ Broken Top Bottle Shop — Friday, June 1st

This year our Cove/COPY (Central Oregon Partnerships for Youth) team hopes to send 50 at-risk kids to a week of summer camp at Ascension School Camp in Cove, OR. We need to raise $35,000 to make this happen. Join us Friday, June 1st, from 5-8PM, at Broken Top Bottle Shop in Bend. We are currently working on some terrific raffle items.

All-Parish Questionnaire

A questionnaire recently was sent out for parishioners to complete and return. (To date more than 90 questionnaires have been returned. Well done, Trinity!)

We are in the process of preparing our parish Disaster Preparedness and Response Plan. A major component of the plan is to utilize the two-part questionnaire to determine (1) your health and welfare concerns, including who you'd like to be notified in an emergency, and (2) your professional skills, abilities or resources you would be willing to volunteer in an emergency or disaster.

Please help our disaster planning efforts by completing the questionnaire and returning it to the parish office. If you have not received the questionnaire, a copy is available on the Trinity website, www.trinitybend.org. Contact Judy Warren @ 541-639-4111 or owlandcompass@gmail.com.
