Adult Forum — TODAY @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services throughout much of the year, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection. Typically, we've taken a vacation during the summer months, but not yet!!

Today, we'll wrap up our conversation from earlier this spring. We'll look for how to apply a model presented by our Diocesan Commission on Ministry called "Gather-Transform-Send" to our own context here at Trinity.

The weekly forum is usually on summer vacation by this time of the year, but this is not a usual year it seems. We'll have at least two more gatherings before our summer break this year. Next week, Terry Rahmsdorff and Jed Holdorph will offer a preview of this year's General Convention. In two weeks, Marianne Borg and Jed Holdorph invite everyone to join an informal conversation about next weekend's seminar, "Seeing Jesus Through a 21st Century Lens" (see below).

A Liturgical "Staycation" — TODAY @ 10:15 AM

Our later service meets in St. Helens for a change of venue during the summer months. We've had a good response to our appeal for greeters these early weeks, but we'll need greeters all summer. Signup sheets for those willing to help as greeters and/or to help prepare for this service will be available as long as there are Sundays left to cover!

In the coming weeks, we'll look for overly-responsible volunteers to cover some additional weekly routines when Father Jed is out of the office – either for General Convention in July or on vacation later in the summer. If you're a responsible sort, you might check with him this morning ...

And we're also experiencing a change in our liturgical forms. The liturgy we're using this summer is adapted from Enriching Our Worship, a form approved for trial use in The Episcopal Church. We are thereby reminded that liturgical renewal is an ongoing process for the whole of our Church and we are encouraged to be aware of the deliberations that will continue this summer in Austin, Texas.

Seeing Jesus Through a 21st Century Lens — Friday and Saturday

The Marcus J. Borg Foundation invites you to a two-day seminar with Michael Morwood. More info is provided in the current parish newsletter, including how to register for this offering.

Trinity and Central Oregon Pride — Saturday from 12 noon

Trinity will have a booth at this year's Central Oregon Pride Festival, hoping to spread the message that we welcome LGBTQ folks here at Trinity. We're looking for volunteers to help staff our booth from noon to 6 pm. Please add your name to one of our signup sheets today!

Commitments to Nonviolence — Wednesday, June 27

One more opportunity this season to make a vow or promise of nonviolence will be offered on June 27th at the Wednesday noon Eucharist. Those who have been in discernment are invited to come forward to offer a promise/vow on that day. If you plan to participate, please contact Betsy Lamb @ felamb38@gmail.com before June 20th. (She can also answer questions, if interested.)

KIDS SING! ... but not for a daycamp at Trinity this year

We had a dedicated crew who have been working toward a music day camp here at Trinity. And we had a great cadre of volunteers mobilized to help. Unfortunately, we didn't recruit enough kids to pull it off this year.

We are disappointed, but not discouraged. We've learned a lot. And we'll give it another go, learning some lessons as we move forward.

Ascension School Camps are coming soon!

The theme for camp season 2018 is "Building Compassion" with a focus on self-compassion, connections and reaching outside ourselves. There are camps for children preschool-age through high school! Check the bulletin board in Brooks Hall for information about all the camps!

Contact Gaye Lawson @ 541-389-8166 for information or go to www.coveascensionschool.com.

Christmas in July

Mark your calendars for the afternoon of July 21st. Santa Claus will interrupt his summer vacation to join the people of Trinity for a pre-Christmas celebration. This fundraiser for Cove/COPY and Condega should be especially fun for children. Also, we are still looking for donated Christmas decorations. If you have Christmas decorations to donate for the Christmas in July party contact Rick Negus @ negus@bendbroadband.com or 541-480-4229.

Trinity Men's Breakfast

There will be NO Men's Breakfast in June. The next breakfast will be on Saturday, July 28th.
