

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Consecration Sunday ... and many words of thanks

We had a great time last weekend. We were so pleased to welcome Bishop Michael Hanley as our guest preacher. And the terrific brunch at St. Helens was a joy. Thanks to all who joined the celebration ... and to Paula Pyron and her crew of volunteers. (A few photos on the bulletin board in Brooks Hall give a hint of what we enjoyed.)

Preliminary reports are encouraging. But we still need to hear from many more before we know the whole story. If you would like to offer your estimate of giving card, please look for a card in the pew rack this morning. Thank you, one and all.

Adult Forum — TODAY @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between our morning services. The Forum offers a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection.

We're having a special food- and fun-filled gathering during the weekly forum time today – with those new to Trinity as our guests of honor ... also including anyone and everyone who wants to come to a party! Bring a friendly face and a curious mind.

Next Sunday, our own Barbara Mayo will be a very special guest presenter at the weekly forum. She plans to share her adventures of a mission trip (and photo safari) she took part in earlier this year. Come and see some exotic sights. Come and learn about some wonderful people.

Second Sunday Cinema presents: Smoke Signals — TODAY @ 6 PM

For the month of Thanksgiving, we're offering one of the best ever Native American films. With an all Native American cast and crew, the film tells the story of two young men – Victor Joseph and Thomas Builds-a-Fire, their relationship and a quest to retrieve a father's ashes. Filled with wit and pathos, the film won many awards.

Second Sunday Cinema presentations are introduced by retired film professor Kake Huck, and followed by discussion. We meet in St. Helens Hall at 6 pm. Please join us. Bring a friend. And remember ... the popcorn is always free!

The parish offices will be closed tomorrow in observance of Veterans Day.

Support for Nonviolent Living — Thursday @ 2 and/or 3 PM

All those interested in carrying forward with our vows of nonviolence, please note the following opportunities coming up this week:

- Those who wish to participate in a reflective, prayerful time of support are asked to come early, starting at 2 pm. This first 45-minutes time is particularly for:
 - 1) those who have made promises or vows of nonviolence;
 - 2) those considering making such a commitment in the future; and
 - 3) anyone else (from Trinity or elsewhere) who seeks to grow in living nonviolently.

- After a 15 minute break, the Rev. Bill Ellis will lead a conversation, starting at 3 pm, on the topic of “Scapegoating and Sacrifice, some Thoughts from Rene Girard on How the Gospel Works.” Ask Betsy Lamb for a summary page from Bill with questions to consider in advance. This topic promises an engaging, challenging discussion!

We hope you will enjoy this gathering – either one or both parts; please let Betsy know that you’re planning to come! For the summary and questions and to RSVP email her @ felamb38@gmail.com

“Building Bridges to Unity”: An Interfaith Thanksgiving Service — Thursday @ 7 PM

This year, give thanks with other member congregations of the Interfaith Network of Central Oregon (INCO) in an ecumenical service of thanksgiving. Come for songs of thanksgiving, a special story for children of all ages and a time of building bridges of unity among local faith traditions.

The service will be held Thursday, November 15, at 7 pm, at First Presbyterian Church, 230 NE 9th Street. Stay for pie afterward ... and possibly bring one to share! (Think of it as a prelude to family pie.) You are also invited to bring non-perishable food items to donate.

The Annual Trinity Holiday Bazaar and Bake Sale — Saturday @ 9 AM

The Bazaar is only 6 days away! Please come and shop with us and show your support this Saturday, from 9 am until 1 pm. And you can also help by sharing the news with others, perhaps using the special bookmarks included in this morning’s bulletin.

Here is what you need to know ...

- There’s still time to offer your help! The blue ‘I can help’ forms are available in Brooks Hall. Fill them out and turn them in at the office.
- Craft items to be sold can be delivered to St. Helen’s Hall on Tuesday, November 13, and Thursday, November 15, between 10 am and 4 pm.
- Food and baked goods can be delivered on Friday, November 16, between 9 am and 4 pm.

This is our largest fundraiser for Outreach! We are looking forward to a profitable and successful bazaar with your help! If you have any questions or concerns, please contact a bazaar committee member:
