

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Adult Forum — TODAY @ 9:15 AM

Our weekly adult forum meets in Brooks Hall between the morning services, offering a time of fellowship, as well as a chance to exchange information or engage in deeper reflection.

The forum is on holiday for the summer ... BUT we'll take a break from this break NEXT Sunday. Please join us in Brooks Hall, between the morning services, as we'll welcome our Bishop, the Rt. Rev Patrick Bell as a special guest. It's a great opportunity to hear from him ... and ask a question?

Pentecost Sunday — TODAY @ 8 & 10:15 AM

Pentecost is a multi-faceted celebration – sometimes referred to as the birthday of the Church. Thank you, one and all, for coming to today's birthday party!

Added thanks for those who arrived wearing red this morning, recalling tongues of fire (from our first reading from the 2nd chapter of Acts)! That reading also speaks of how the Holy Spirit gave the disciples the ability to speak in various languages. So thanks, too, to those who have offered to read the first verses of that passage in another language (see page 6 for details). Based on those who have already signed up, we expect to hear a smattering of Spanish, French, Italian, German, Swedish, Gibberish, Latvian, Italian, Greek, Hawaii-Pidgin ... and more?!

The Holy Spirit is especially associated with baptism, so we recall the promises we all make during the liturgy this morning.

And we're also including a "Liturgy of Nonviolence" at our morning services. We all affirm promises to strive for justice and peace whenever we renew our Baptismal Covenant, so nothing more is really needed. Still, the following members of our parish family have asked to offer a public commitment to peacemaking this morning: Nancy Brady, Suzanne Brady, Pat Croll, Donna Young, Betsy Lamb, Ken Sandine, Emilie Marlinghaus, and Rick Negus.

Our summer staycation continues — TODAY @ 10:15 AM

As has become the pattern here at Trinity, our later liturgy offers a refreshing change of scenery ... and we don't even have to go to another church!

Next Sunday, we're heading off (liturgically-speaking) to New Zealand.

We're looking for greeters during these coming weeks. Please consider signing up to help 1-2 Sundays this summer and be part of what makes Trinity a welcoming community of faith!

Second Sunday Cinema: Brother Sun, Sister Moon — TODAY @ 6 PM

Our June movie dramatizes events in the life of St. Francis from before his conversion through his audience with the pope, including his friendship with St. Clare. Directed with great beauty and color by Franco Zeffirelli.

As always, Kake Huck provides insights for us to discuss. Free popcorn!

Holiday Bazaar Sew-Day — Friday from 10 AM to 4 PM

The first sew-day for this year's Holiday Bazaar is coming up! Please feel free to drop in to Brooks Hall, as your schedule allows, between 10 am and 4 pm ... and bring along your sewing machine, materials and patterns. We'll have cutting mats and ironing boards/irons available.

Looking for ideas of things to make? Good sellers each year include: placemats, table runners, pot holders, marker bags with pad, cord caddies, dog bandanas, luggage tags, travel chalkboards and adult bibs. We're always looking for new ideas, too!

Any questions, please contact Linda Greenough @ lindagreenough1@gmail.com or by phone at 360-420-4763.

The Bishop is coming! The Bishop is coming! — Trinity Sunday ... NEXT Sunday

We celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity – our congregation's FEAST DAY – next week. And to enhance the celebration, we'll welcome the Rt. Reverend Patrick Bell, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon, to Trinity.

Bishop Pat will be here for both of the morning services that day, as well as our special guest at the coffee hour that week.

Men's Breakfast and Road Clean-up — Saturday, June 22nd

In June, the monthly Men's Breakfast is going coed again! We invite ALL members of the parish to breakfast this month, then (once fortified) to head out for our semi-annual Road Clean Up.

More details will be available soon! Please RSVP for breakfast by Thursday, June 20, to Brian Douglass @ bdouglass2014@centurylink.net.

Volunteers are needed to assist with the cleanup of Trinity's section of Highway 20. Please meet at the church parking lot on Saturday morning at 10 am, done by noon to one o'clock. A signup sheet is in Brooks Hall. Questions, contact Rick Negus at 541-480-4229.

Central Oregon Pride Festival — Saturday, June 22nd

Led by the Peace and Social Justice Team, Trinity will have a booth at the Central Oregon Pride Festival again this year, letting LGBTQ folks in our area know that they are welcome at Trinity. Volunteers are needed to help staff the booth between 11 am and 7 pm in one or two-hour shifts.

If you can help, please use the form on the Trinity website – www.trinitybend.org – or use the laptop set up for that purpose this morning in Brooks Hall! (Even if you cannot staff the booth, plan to come by and say hi ... an easy way to let our friends and neighbors know that this is a community that values diversity and loves all God's children.)

Responding to church arson fires in Louisiana

At Trinity, we have many reasons to respond to the recent arson fires in Louisiana. Six years ago, we were supported by others who offered their prayers and financial gifts to help us rebuild. And we stand for the love of all God's people and abhor any racially-motivated hate crime.

We will continue to invite your donations through June 15. Please make your check out to Trinity, with "Louisiana Arson Fires" in the memo line.
